

ARTICLE SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

1. The articles should strictly follow the standards and regulations outlined in this regulation and should be submitted in the following fields:
 - Management and Economics
 - Law (Jurisprudence)
 - Philology
 - Information Technologiues
2. The articles in the scientific collection are adjusted to the fields outlined in point 1.
3. The scientific collection is published both in printed and electronic versions at least twice a year, and comprises up to 250 pages.
4. Admittedly, 40% of the published articles should be submitted by the authors who have a scientific title or degree.
5. Annually, 10% of the materials in the collection are published in English.
6. The electronic version of the published collection is posted on the official website of the collection www.eua-collection.am.
7. After publication, the collection is delivered to the National Book Chamber of Armenia, the National Library of Armenia, other professional-scientific libraries and archieves.
8. Materials supported by EUA and additional releases are not equated with this collection.
9. The publication of articles is carried out on a free or paid basis.
10. EUA employees, doctoral students, postgraduate students, researchers and masters submit their articles free of charge.

11. The cost of 1 printed page is 3000 AMD. The value of all pages of the article submitted for publication is equal, regardless of the volume of the material.
12. Each author of the article is given a free copy of the collection. The cost of each additional copy of the collection is 5000 AMD.
13. The author(s) must pay the amount within 3 working days from the moment receiving the payment notice. Payment notice is sent only to the author(s) of the articles accepted for publication.
14. Payments must be made by bank transfer to the university-specified account. In the latter case, the author either mails the receipt to journal@eua.am or submits it to the accounting department within the time frame outlined in point 13.
15. Article authors are not compensated.
16. Articles are sent to the editing office in both printed and electronic formats using the "MS Word" text editor. The electronic version must be supplied by email to journal@eua.am.
17. Master's students may submit an article with the co-authorship of an expert with a degree in the relevant subject only.
18. Postgraduate students and research applicants submit their articles with a written assurance from their scientific advisor.
19. Articles must be submitted by the stipulated date in the application announcement. Articles submitted after the deadline are considered for the subsequent issue.
20. The collection includes dates for article submission, review, and publishing.
21. The collection is published with the approval of the EUA's scientific council.